Application Process

If all eligibility requirements are met, students may click on this link, to read the Application Instructions for Art Education. Then,

1. Complete the on-line application by February 1. Be prepared to upload Images of your artwork: Submit 6-10 high quality images that best represent your skills, knowledge, and interests in art. Formats: a URL if you have a website with images, a power point presentation or PDF with digital images and titles.
2. Prepare hard copies of
 - a. Transcripts for all college-level coursework. If you have only attended UW Madison, no need to submit transcripts.
 - b. A written statement (maximum of two pages, single spaced), addressing your experiences relevant to art and art education. The written statement will be reviewed for clarity of communication and quality of writing as well as depth and variety of life experiences relevant to art and teaching. As suggestions, students may want to choose one or more of the following topics to address in the statement:
 - i. How or why did you choose to pursue a career in art education?
 - ii. What experience do you have working with children and/or diverse populations in formal programs or informal settings?
 - iii. What leadership roles (paid or volunteer) helped you prepare for a career in art education?
 - iv. What is your professional involvement in fine arts, design, community arts, or art curriculum development?
 - v. Have you conducted research, published articles or pursued travel related to art education?
3. Mail the hard copies of your transcripts (if necessary), written statement and this application checklist to:

Notification of Admission into the Program

1. The EAS Student Status Examiner and Art Education faculty will review program application materials. EAS will notify students of official admission into the Art Education Program by mid-April via email.
2. The offer of admission will specify a deadline for the acceptance of this offer. Students must respond to EAS by this date; those who do not will forfeit their position.
3. Admission is not final until EAS receives the acceptance and eligibility is confirmed through spring semester grades.
4. Criminal background checks will be run on all students at admission. Applicants must also complete a disclosure statement.
5. Once a student has officially accepted, he/she will arrange to meet with the Art Education Program Director (contact information below) before the end of spring semester for mandatory advising.

If you have any questions at all, contact Dr. Mary Hoefflerle at hoefflerle@wisc.edu or 608 772 7016.
